

The Senate Budget Subcommittee on Education will meet at 1:30 p.m. today to review proposed cuts to K-12, community colleges, UC and CSU. The committee will review the separate packages of cuts proposed by the governor, the Legislative Analyst and Senate Democrats.

Mid-Year Cut Proposals
Item	Governor	Leg Analyst	Sen. Dems
General Apportionments (per-FTES funding)	($298,000,000)	($60,000,000) for certain physical education courses	No reduction
Cost-of-living Adjustment	($39,800,000)	($39,800,000)	($39,800,000)
Student Fees	No increase	Increase to: $26 on January 1; $30 on July 1 (and reduction of $120 million in revenue)	No increase
Physical Plant/Instructional Support	No reduction	No reduction	($27,345,000)
Career Technical (SB 70)	No reduction	No reduction	($20,000,000)
Mandate Reimbursements	No reduction	No reduction	($4,000,000)

You can listen to the hearing stream over the Internet. As the committee will be rushing to complete work by 4:30 for the memorial service for a Republican staff member, limited public testimony will be accepted.

Legislative Republicans have not made specific budget proposals. However, Assembly Republican Leader Mike Villines said yesterday that his caucus would release details on \$11 billion in proposed cuts by Monday, December 10, and has released a list of 23 labor, environmental and tax relief demands before he will entertain tax hikes.

Scott Lay
President and Chief Executive Officer

P.S. Register now for the League's January Annual Legislative Conference and Effective Trusteeship Workshop. To keep registration costs down and to better preserve our environment, physical brochures are not being mailed this year.