SYLLABUS:  SPRING 2010

Course description: A continuation of Art 100, extending from the Renaissance to contemporary times. May be taken before or concurrently with Art 100. Acceptable for credit: CSU, UC.

Course Overview: A survey of the developments in art in painting, sculpture, architecture, and the minor arts from the Renaissance to contemporary times. This is a course in visual art appreciation and history for the student with little or no knowledge of art history. The emphasis will be on the so-called plastic arts (painting, works on paper, and sculpture) as well as on architecture. We will cover the stylistic periods in art from before the Renaissance (about 1300 A.D.) and work our way to Modern art. While the text and the bulk of the material in the class is presented in chronological order, there will be some topics introduced out of sequence in order to explore the context of the period we are studying.

There are approximately two quizzes, as well as Midterm and Final exams, which are comprehensive. Students are required to complete an opinion paper, meeting specific requirements which will be outlined when the assignment is given approximately at Midterm, and you will be given a password and class ID number to create an account at www.Turnitin.com where you are to submit it. To create an account, you have to have an active email address.

Student Learning Outcomes:
At the conclusion of this course, the student will describe, analyze and interpret a work of art.

Assessment Tool: Essay with Rubric

Institutional Student Learning Outcomes: ISLO2, ISLO4, ISLO5

Required textbook:

Available to students online, 180-day access for $70.

Methods of instruction:
Powerpoint lectures, readings, discussion, audio-visual presentations.

Attendance policy:
I will take attendance twice each class if I see students are leaving early or coming late. Each instance counts as a half an absence.

More than two absences FOR ANY REASON will drop your grade by a half a grade. In other words, if you are getting a B-, your grade will drop to a C due to excessive absences.

We cover a lot of information every class, so please make sure you are in attendance. No make-ups of exams.
I encourage “the buddy system” – please connect with other students and help each other.

Contact me if you have questions or need help; email, leave a message on my office phone and I will call back or make an appointment to see me. If you don't hear from me it probably means I had trouble reaching you, so please try contacting me again.

Note: Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP & S) office as soon as possible. DSP & S, Room 22117, Health Sciences Building, 355-6312.

Grading policy:
Student’s final grades will be assessed according to the number of points earned through completion of assignments, exams, quizzes.

For grading of essay, please see Essay Grading Scoring Guide on page 4.
