I. Mission:
Valley Jazz was formed in 1988 after Jimmie Cannon was named the Imperial County Teacher of the Year. With this recognition came the opportunity to fulfill a dream of creating a community jazz ensemble to mentor young musicians while providing performing opportunities for professional musicians and enthusiasts. Twenty years later, Valley Jazz is yearly sponsoring music scholarships and performing two annual concerts plus numerous community events. With Jimmie Cannon's passing comes the transition of keeping his legacy and dream alive. We, the founding members of Valley Jazz, wish to continue as he would want us to. Derek Cannon has committed to being a guest conductor for the annual concerts, and other Jimmie Cannon Alumni are interested in being guests and supporting our efforts in endowing the Jimmie Cannon Memorial Scholarships.

With the continuing support of Imperial Valley College and Central Union High School, Jimmie Cannon's Valley Jazz will continue on its mission of providing performance opportunities to young musicians and keeping Jazz, the only American art form, alive and well in the Imperial Valley.
