

Imperial Valley College 6th Annual 2009 Applied Sciences Expo

This is an excellent opportunity for you and your company representatives to:

- exhibit the latest equipment and materials,
- demonstrate the latest processes,
- display vehicles and other equipment,
- explain safety/protective services,
- familiarize the public with job requirements, and much more.

Related to your specific profession, occupation, or trade. We hope your busy schedules will allow you to attend this worthwhile event.

THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 2009 10 am to 1 pm

Open to the public

Imperial Valley College

Corner of Highway 111 and Aten Road, Imperial, CA
Inside the DePaoli Sports Complex (GYMNASIUM)

Outside on the asphalt area of the DePaoli Sports Complex (GYMNASIUM)
