Affairs

The Suicide Awareness Day took place last Tuesday went well. Yellow ribbons were distributed amongst students, staff and faculty. The guest speaker from Behavioral Health got off topic but Secretary Deol felt the event went well overall. Senator Minor was thanked for her assistance during the event.

Reminder: Health Fair will take place tomorrow, Tuesday, October 4, 2016 from 11 am-2pm in the College Center Oasis Room.

M/S/C (Deol/Guzman) to approve $300 towards the Health Fair expenditures. Discussion: Volunteers to cover the registration table are needed.

Athletics

Treasurer Villa would like to see participation from the Senators in attending the sports games on campus to improve school spirit.

Cultural

The Hispanic Heritage event was held last Friday. Over 300 attendees were at the festivity. Publicity needs to be done way in advance next year to increase participation from the community. Dean Martinez-Inzunza reminded Senators to create their own committees made up of other students. Committees do not need to be made within the Senate. He reminded Senators to remember that they are "leaders" leading a function.

Treasurer Villa acknowledged Senators Lopez-Espejo, Chavez and Deol for their tremendous assistance during the event. Parliamentarian Guzman commented that next year, food should be taken care by campus clubs and not ASG. She felt clubs did not do well with their sales because of the free crunchy tacos. Senators stated that several comments were made regarding the not-so good quality of the crunchy tacos. Attendees were under the impression we were providing carne asada tacos. Dean Martinez-Inzunza felt the ASG provided a family oriented activity and felt that the event was wonderful.

A multi-cultural event was suggested for the spring semester.

Dean Martinez-Inzunza extended a special thank you to Ms. Leticia Pastrana, ESL Professor and her students for providing a successful karaoke.

Campus Safety Awareness took place last Wednesday in the Quad area. The The Hunting Ground documentary was shown in room 208 during College Hour but attendance was very limited. Senator Lopez-Espejo shared different ideas for publicizing the documentary for next year.

Save the Date: Breast Cancer Awareness Day, Thursday, October 20, 2016 and Veteran's Day, Thursday, November 10, 2016.

Parliamentarian Guzman would like more involvement with publicizing events on campus, the ASG Marquee, etc. Ms. Trejo will be meeting with her and Senator Escobar to train them on the ASG marquee and poster machine.
