

American Indian Studies - Student Learning Outcomes

AIS 106	Indians of North America	1. Identify and evaluate cultural and ethnic diversity among the various Native American groups; their geography and environment; prehistoric migration into the Americas. (ILO2, ILO3, ILO5) 2. Describe Native American interaction with the environment and their management of natural resources. (ILO2, ILO3) 3. Summarize similarities and differences of social institutions of the various Native American groups. (ILO2, ILO3) 4. Identify and summarize European effect on Native American cultures. (ILO2, ILO3, ILO5)
AIS 108	Indians of the Southwest	1. Demonstrate a measurable understanding of the prehistory of the American Southwest and its cultural development. (ILO2, ILO3) 2. Summarize cultural diversity of customs and traditions, languages, religious beliefs and rituals, as well as social organization of Native Americans of the Southwest. (ILO2, ILO3, ILO5) 3. Summarize the differences and similarities of the Spanish, Mexican, and American political programs dealing with the acculturation of Native Americans. (ILO2, ILO3, ILO5) 4. Describe the influence of the Spanish Mission system on the religious and social structure of Native Americans. (ILO2, ILO3, ILO5)