

WORK-STUDY SUPERVISOR HANDBOOK

A. INTRODUCTION TO THE FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM

The Federal Work-Study (FWS) program provides part-time jobs to eligible students. Students must complete the financial aid process and qualify before working in any FWS position. The funding for student wages comes from a combination of the federal government and employers and is paid monthly through Imperial Valley College.

The program is need based. Students must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year. There is no guarantee that a student will receive the award or continue to receive work-study awards from one year to the next. Students should complete the application process early to be considered. FWS funds are limited. There is also no guarantee that a student will be able to get a job or earn the full amount of the award before the IVC allocation for FWS funds is spent.

B. HOW TO HIRE AN ON-CAMPUS WORK-STUDY STUDENT

(NOTE: Off campus employers should refer to the instructions received with the Work-Study Contract)

STEP 1: Complete and submit the Work-Study Contract and Work-Study Job Description Form(s) to the financial aid office. Job listings are posted online and students are instructed to contact the supervisor listed in the job announcement to arrange an interview.

STEP 2: Do not interview the student unless they have a completed Student Employment Application and copy of their Work-Study Instructions Email. Note: Both of these items are required for returning students you would like to re-hire as well.

STEP 3: The decision to hire or not hire the student rests with the supervisor; there is no guaranteed work-study placement. If you decide to hire the student, you will need to print the Work-Study Hiring Forms from the link available on our website.

STEP 4: Complete the forms with the student. The forms that must be completed as part of the hiring packet are:

- a. W-4
- b. Drug Free Work Place Policy
- c. Statement of Privacy Act
- d. Work-Study Statement of Compliance
- e. Work-Study Authorization Form

NOTE: The I-9 form will be completed electronically by the Workstudy Coordinator

STEP 5: Direct the student to schedule an appointment with the Work-Study Coordinator to submit the hiring packet and complete the hiring process.

STEP 6: Once you receive the completed Work-Study Authorization approved by the Work-Study Coordinator, the student may begin working on the date indicated.

C. SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervisors must monitor the hours a FWS student works. Students cannot be scheduled to work during their class time or exam periods. Supervisor's should check the student class schedule each semester to ensure students are not working during class time. Any exception, such as a class cancelation, must be documented. It is the supervisor's responsibility to keep track of the hours used to ensure they are not exceeded. Actual hours worked must be tracked on a time card and the record must be retained by the Department for three years after the end of the academic year and made available to auditors upon request. A suggested, optional time card format is available on the Financial Aid website. Any hours worked beyond those authorized will be paid from your department or agency.

FWS students cannot work more than 15 hours per week, or over 8 hours in a day. Students must be supervised while performing work-study job duties. Students working remotely from home, on weekends, or on days when the College is closed do not meet the supervision requirements and are not authorized to be paid from work-study funds unless requested and approved in advance by the Work-Study Coordinator. Keep in mind that working more hours only uses awarded hours quicker and there is no guarantee that an initial work study award will be increased during the year. There is no work-study during the summer.

FWS students scheduled to work 4 to 5 hours must take a 15 minute break. If scheduled for 6 or more hours, they must take a minimum 30 minute break. Students must maintain continuous, at least half-time enrollment (6 units) to be eligible. If they drop to less than half time, they are no longer eligible.

Supervisors are expected to provide a meaningful work experience consistent with the job description that was provided for this position. In addition, the supervisor must provide training, explain job assignments and describe dress code in the work area.

If the student stops showing up for work, notify the Work-Study Coordinator immediately. Another Work-Study student may or may not be available depending on current funding.

All questions and concerns regarding the Work-Study Program are to be directed to one of the Work-Study Coordinators:

D. TIMESHEETS

Timesheets must be verified and signed by the Agency Department authorized supervisor. These must be neat and legible. When completing timesheets, round off to the nearest $\frac{1}{4}$ of an hour. Improperly completed or illegible timesheets will not be accepted. They will be returned for corrections and may not be processed until the following pay period.

All timesheets are DUE in the Financial Aid Office no later than the 10th of each month for hours worked from the 11th of the previous month to the 10th of the current month. Students and supervisors are responsible for submitting timesheets on time. Any late timesheets will NOT be processed in the normal scheduled payroll, but will be processed with the following month's payroll process. Work-Study checks will be mailed to the students' mailing address on the last working day of each month.

E. SICK LEAVE

Work-Study students are eligible to accrue sick leave in accordance with California AB 1522. Students who work more than 30 days can earn sick leave. Sick leave is earned at the rate of 1 hour for every 30 hours worked. There is a limit of 48 hours of sick that may be accrued, a maximum of 24 hours of sick leave may be used per fiscal year. Unused sick leave rolls over into the next year. Sick leave is not paid out upon the end of employment, however upon reemployment within 12 months the previous unused sick leave balance may be reinstated. Sick leave may only be used on or after the 90th day of employment. Sick leave may be used for the diagnosis, care or treatment of an existing condition, or preventative care for the student or a family member. Student workers must provide supervisor with reasonable advance notice when using sick leave unless the event is unforeseeable, which then the student must provide notice "as soon as practical". Sick leave hours must be reported in the sick leave column of the electronic timesheet and clearly indicated on the printed copy submitted to the Financial Aid Office. Federal Work-Study funds may not be used to pay sick leave hours; the district/employer incurs the cost of all Work-Study students. If you would like to know the sick leave balance of your student, please contact a Work-Study Coordinator.
